Cause

Charge Number

Violation

One

There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated special condition number two which requires that he pay to the United States a fine of $1,000 no later than February 7, 2007.

On February 14, 2007, the offender met with this probation officer at the probation office for a scheduled appointment, and conceded that he had not made the required fine payment.

Two There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated the standard condition which requires he shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance.

On February 14, 2007, the offender admitted to this officer that he had consumed marijuana the day prior to reporting to the probation office for his scheduled appointment.

Action Taken and Reason

Regarding charge number one, the offender admittedly informed that he did not have the funds to complete payment of his fine obligation this month. However, he did agree to make a $500 payment by February 20, 2007, and another $500 payment no later than March 20, 2007, with the Court's approval.

Regarding charge number two, the offender was forthcoming and honest regarding his marijuana use. He was given a verbal reprimand by this probation officer and warned that further illicit drug use could result in further Court action. Additionally, he will be referred to the contracted treatment provider for a substance abuse assessment.

Derek R. Owens, Special Assistant U.S. Attorney has been notified and there are no objections.
